General Terms & Conditions (GT&C)

Scope of application

The German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch) and the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch) shall apply - also in cross-border transactions - in accordance with these Terms and Conditions, unless individually negotiated agreements are made. We object to the validity of any third-party general terms and conditions of a customer. Our terms and conditions of delivery shall apply to all - including further - orders placed with us by the customer in writing, by telephone or by e-mail.

Customer base

We supply exclusively to professionals except of nutritional supplements and pain- and side-effect-management items.

Pricing

Our Euro prices are for domestic use incl. the applicable sales tax. The prices of our current offers and the promotional prices are binding for the indicated validity period. With the publication of a new catalog or a new price list, all information from previous catalogs/price lists lose their validity. We reserve the right to change prices in individual cases compared to the information in our current catalog and will inform about changes on the invoice at the latest. If the customer does not wish to keep the goods at the new price, the originally packed and unused goods will be collected from the customer free of charge by a transport company commissioned by us within two weeks of delivery and after consultation with us by telephone.

For Globalhealth membership levels 1. to 3. as well as for non-members, differently staggered performance or service offers & product prices apply.

Corresponding information can be found on the current price lists.

Shipment cost

We charge shipping costs of 7.74 € (DPD) or 11.90 € (UPS), for deliveries within Germany. For special orders (e.g. Dermatic, centrifuge, express delivery) and for deliveries abroad, the actual shipping and packaging costs incurred will be charged.

Payment method

Invoices are payable within 8 days without deductions. Alternatively, the customer may grant us a SEPA direct debit mandate. The period for the advance notice (pre-notification) is reduced to 1 day. The buyer must ensure that the account is covered. Costs incurred due to non-payment or reversal of the direct debit shall be borne by the customer if the customer is responsible for the non-payment or reversal of the direct debit. In individual cases, the delivery can be made against cash on delivery or prepayment.

Title retention

We retain title to the delivered goods until all claims against the customer to which we are entitled from the business relationship have been settled. This shall also apply if individual claims have been included by us in current accounts and the balance has been struck and acknowledged. If the customer acts in breach of contract, in particular in the event of default in payment, we shall be entitled to take back the goods; the customer shall be obliged to surrender the goods. Taking back the goods shall only constitute a withdrawal from the contract if we expressly declare this in writing. The goods may not be pledged or assigned as security without our written consent until payment has been made in full.

Exchange and return

Exchanges and returns can only be made after prior consultation with one of our office staff. For this purpose, the delivery note number is required. The goods must be in their original packaging, unused, undamaged and unlabeled. Basically excluded from exchange or return are reagents, sterile products, special orders (devices) and custom-made products (e.g. individual advertising materials).

Notice of defects

If the delivered goods have obvious defects, this must be reported within three working days of receipt of the goods. The customer must have damage to the packaging confirmed in writing by the transport company. Other defects must be reported within three working days after discovery. For the timeliness of the notice of defects, it is sufficient to send it within the deadline if it is received by us later. If this does not happen, the customer is not entitled to any claims against us due to these defects.

Withholding and set-off

The customer shall only be entitled to a right of retention or set-off if the counterclaim is undisputed or has been legally established. The customer's right to refuse performance until we have effected counter-performance under the same contract shall remain unaffected if there is no obligation to perform in advance.

Liability

We shall not be liable for damages due to an insignificant breach of duty - irrespective of the legal grounds - for remote - i.e. not typically occurring - property damage and financial losses for which we are only responsible due to slight negligence.

Limitation of claims for defects

Claims for defects against us shall become statute-barred after 12 months. This shall not apply in the case of culpable breaches of duty resulting in injury to life, body or health or in the case of grossly negligent breaches of duty.

Rectification

If the item delivered by us is defective and we are obligated to subsequent performance, we may, at our option, remedy the defect in the item delivered or deliver a new item free of defects against return of the defective item.

Foreign advertising statements

Insofar as the quality of the object of purchase has not been agreed, properties which are assigned to the purchased object on the basis of public statements by third parties, in particular advertising statements, by manufacturers, importers and advertising agencies, shall only be part of its nominal quality if the customer proves that we knew or should have known of this statement and that the statement influenced its decision to purchase and we do not prove that the statement was rectified in an equivalent manner by the time the contract was concluded.

Privacy Statement

Your personal data will only be stored for internal purposes and for the preparation of the invoice in accordance with the Data Protection Act. A transfer of your data to third parties, beyond the data provided by you, if necessary, for use on the NETWORK homepage, will not take place in any case without consent. By submitting your order, you consent to the storage of your data to the extent necessary for the processing of related business transactions. You can revoke this consent at any time with effect for the future in writing or by e-mail.

A full privacy statement you will find on the next page and you can find our complete privacy policy concerning our online-shop here:
